I have had several applications to know where "Never Alone" can be gotten and if it can be sung as a solo--Send me a music dealer for it. I got it from Smith & Nixon, for 25c. post paid. I beg pardon for any seeming lack of courtesy or appreciation of the many inquiries and complimentary letters I receive but it is utterly impossible for me to reply personally. I would love to acknowledge every paper, card and book, cause he wears a tattered garment, no Stolo because poverty is patiently borne nor a Peripatetic because he goes on foot. No! our lot is made bright or gloomy by a different theory. We owe Jeremiah Curtin a card of thanks for his translation from the Polish into English of "Quo Vadis" whose closing pages tell of a wicked man's end and of the triumph of Christianity. "Quo Vadis, milne?"

Could not express the rapture of Annie E. Springer, of 1125, Howard St., Philadelphia, Pa., when she "found that Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption had completely cured her of a hacking cough that for many years has made life a burden. All other remedies and doctors could give her no help, but she says of this Royal Cure, "It soon relieved the pain in my chest and I can now sleep soundly, something I can scarcely remember doing before. I feel like saying its praises throughout the Universe." So write anyone who tries Dr. King's New Discovery for any trouble of the Throat, Chest or Lungs. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free at Short & Haynes' drug store, every bottle guaranteed.

When I first visited Earlington, Ky., 18 or 20 years ago it was one of the most backward places I ever saw, a disgrace to the state. The streets were filthy and the people when the licensed saloon hours were over dealt out poisonous liquor to steal men's brains and debauch them. A lady was hardly safe on the street at noon days. Drunken men paraded the streets cursing and blaspheming God's Holy Name. Drunken hounds made the nights hideous and loud boisterous quarrelling and street fighting were the order of the day. As soon as local opinion came, what a change for the better. No whiskey or beer has been sold in the town for 12 or 13 years and it today is one of the quietest

"My wife a few years ago had hemorrhages of the lungs, and we summoned our home physician," writes Joseph D. Wiles, M.D., of West Plains, Mo., Frederick, Mo. He checked the morning after the hemorrhage, but she was also a terrible cough and expectorated a great deal. She wanted to see another doctor so I called on Dr. Pierce. He examined her and told me whether she had consumption, and his answer was, "Madam, it is very near consumption." He advised her to use cod-liver oil, but she would not take it. I then procured a bottle of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and my wife commenced using it. She began to get better right away and her cough left her. She is now perfectly well and has no more trouble with the Golden Discovery. She can walk ten or twelve miles without any trouble. We are satisfied with the Golden Medical Discovery, and have saved by its use of Golden Medical Discovery. I am sure she takes any cold she incurs upon having
